Communication:

If anything from the technical rider or the hospitality rider could not be provided, please just simply talk about it with Leña Dora as soon as possible, we will definitely find a solution.

Anticipation is essential.

It is necessary to take measures to prevent any offense against minorised people: Make it clear that sexist, racist, classist, validist speech and attitudes, or about appearance in general, will not be tolerated within the premises of the event. Also ensure the well-being and safety of the elderly and of the minors if they are allowed.

Money:

The price of Leña Dora's show is usually €300, paid in cash in hand, at the end of the sound checks, at least one hour before the doors open to the public. Transfers, checks or credit cards are not accepted, but it is possible to sign a receipt.

Leña Dora can offer very large discounts in the case of non-profit events for reasons of political solidarity, or in countries with lower economic power. We'll find the best agreement by talking about it.

Invites:

Two friends of Leña Dora shall attend the event without paying, Leña Dora will send their names to the organization before the doors open to the public to add them to the entry list.
